

The Titanic

This is my first realistic portrait drawing it took almost 20 hours to complete this classical pencil color art

Abraham Lincoln

The 16th president of US, the man who came from the scratch in this portrait I use 3D light shadow effects with eraser, it takes nearby 12 hours to complete.

Albert Einstein

It's one of my favorite in my portrait work because in this drawing half of the picture is my reference picture and another one is my drawing which is perfectly matched with my reference picture

Adolf Hitler

This is my first postal painting drawing attempt which takes almost 15 hour to complete nearby 100+ layer of coloring the portrait

Tribe stone work

Drawing over the stone is entirely different from drawing in the sheet, the stone surface is really so hard to paint and also for this painting I used Acrylic paint it's so difficult to blend the colors after lots of challenges I did this craft work.

WKHVKEBVK

Drawing myself

I tried to draw myself with simple pencil sketch as a result this one I created.

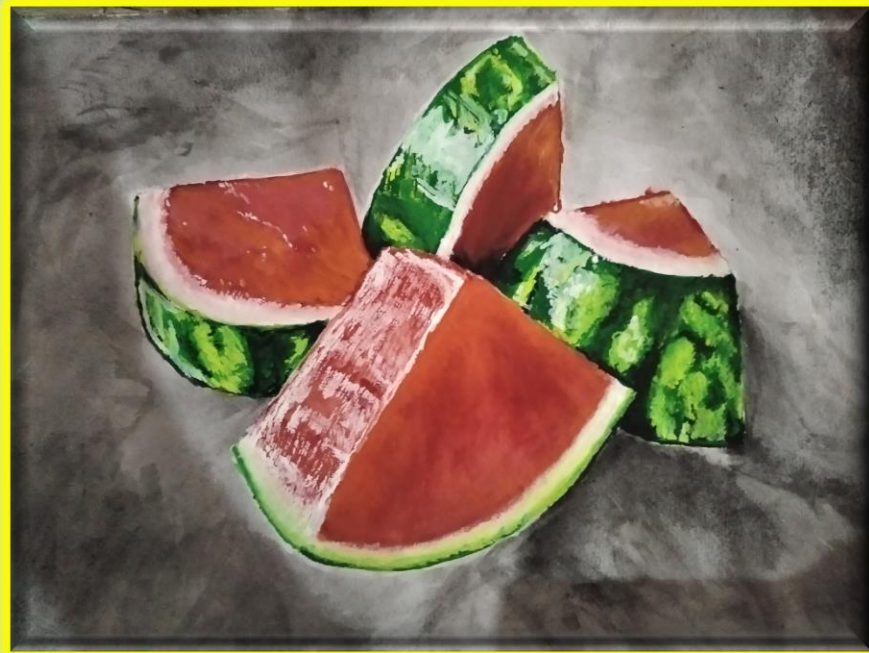

Myself with Violin

This is the moment of beginning to learn the musical instruments but at the point of time I take this violin only for the purpose of get the profile picture

My partner (Harmonica)

My first portable instrument and also my lockdown partner

3D watermelon

This was my first 3d drawing attempt to complete this master piece it took one entire Sunday for me but for this portrait it's entirely worth for it.

Caricature myself (Cartoon classical drawing)
